Donald Trump is a threat to racial progress. From his support for white nationalists who marched as Charlottesville, to his determination to undermine President Obama's legacy, and his preference for immigrants of northern European descent (African immigrants, according to Trump, come from "shit hole" countries), it is clear that Trump doesn't care about black people.

Furthermore, race-based hate crimes have increased during Trump's presidency. Unless we take action now, black people will continue to suffer under this president. Democrats are prepared to do something about this.

In a new package of initiatives, Democrats promise to stand up for racial equality by (1) vigorously investigating white nationalist organizations; (2) protecting Obama's legacy; and (3) making sure that immigrants from black and brown countries have the same access to American citizenship as migrants from Europe.

Working America is suffering economically under Donald Trump. Wealth is concentrated in fewer and fewer hands, and the Trump administration is increasingly staffed with investment bankers and other fat cats who have no idea how the average American lives. Instead of working on ways to improve America’s economy, Trump has drained thousands of dollars from the economy on vacations to Mar-a-Lago and other properties he owns.

In addition, Trump and his administration continue to bleed this economy dry with economic policies that will make the rich get richer, while the middle class disappears and the poor get poorer. Unless we take action, economic opportunity in America will cease to exist. Democrats are prepared to do something about it.

In a new package of economic policy proposals, Democrats promise to stand up for working Americans by (1) raising wages and creating good-paying jobs; (2) lowering the cost of living; and (3) building an economy that gives working Americans the tools they need to succeed in the 21st century.

[1/4 of Respondents]

Donald Trump is a threat to American democracy. The Trump administration's indifference to ethics, the rule of law, and the right to voice one’s concerns at the ballot box and in protests endanger the American way of life. Above all, democracy requires free and fair elections.

With allegations of Russian interference, and Trump's reluctance to acknowledge it, it's not clear that 2016 was a fair election. Indeed, one wonders how Trump plans to reward Putin for tilting the election in his favor. Unless we take action, rule of, by, and for the people in America will cease to exist. Democrats are prepared to do something about it.

In a new package of accountability initiatives, Democrats promise to stand up for American democracy by (1) investigating and taking action against the administration’s corruption and contempt for the rule of law; (2) protecting the integrity of our elections; and (3) getting to the bottom of Russia’s interference in the 2016 election and any role Donald Trump had in it.
